WORTH WINS DECISIVELY

SPRITE SETS FAST PACE, BUT SUCCUMBS TO CHAMPION IN STRETCH RACING.

Large and Representative Gathering Witnesses De cision of Juvenile Match at Latonia-Favorites Figure Well in Day's Results.

Latonia, Ky., October 24.—In a fashion that left no room for doubt, H. C. Hallenbeck's grand colt. Worth, demonstrated his superiority over H. K. Knapp's smart filly, Sprite, in their match this afternoon, amidst tumultuous cheers from the large and demonstrative crowd that witnessed the struggle between the pair. Losers and winners alike joined in paying tribute to Worth after the finish. Foremost among the throng to appliand the sterling feat of the son of Knight of the Thistie and Miss Hanover was Mr. Knapp. He took his filly's failure in sportsmanlike fashion and was among the first-to-acknowledge Worth's superiority. Mr. Hallefbeck was the happiest man at the course after the victory, but took his honors modestly.

Though beaten, Sprite was by no means disgraced. She-led the champlon a merry pace for the first half mile and looked all over the winner on the stretch turn, but Worth would not be denied and steadily decreased the filly's lead. At the last furlong post. Sprite was still the leader, but at this point she weakened suddenly and Worth flashed into the lead. His margin at the end was a length and a half. While there is not a dissenting opinion as to Worth's superiority, some questioned the wisdom of subjecting Sprite to the heart-breaking early pace which eventually brought about her collapse in the stretch. Trainer Karrick, before and after the race, had no excuses to offer and congratulated trainer Taylor on Worth's success.

Owner Hallenbeck was formally presented with the massive silver loving cup provided by the Latonia Jockey Club, by Judge Charles F. Price, who said: "Mr. Hallenbeck, I wish to offer you my congratulations, and on behalf of the Latonia Jockey Club present to you this beautiful cup. It is a pleasing sign of the times, that two such representative turfmen as you and Mr. Knapp should battle for turfsupermacy, the only real incentive being the prestige of victory. It is true that a wager has been made by each of you, but I feel that the winning of it has planded by the public, as sion and expressed his thanks for the magnificent cup.

To trainer Karrick, Sprite's failure was keenly disappointing, as he was entirely confident that she world prove Worth's superior. To him her failure recafled a certain August day in 1890 at Sheepshead Bay when he stood stoically by and witnessed the sway-back Tenny beaten by the mighty Salvator. But, unlike on that occasion, when his hopes rose as the horses were nearing the end of their mile and a quarter journey and Tenny was creeping up steadily on the mighty Salvator, to eventually lose by a head, Mr. Karrick today looked on wistfully while Worth steadily decreased Sprite's early lead and drew away at the finish. Tenny's preparation for his match with Salvator was supervised by Mr. Karrick, though "Smip" Donovan was his trainer.

A more ideal racing day could not have been ordered, there was just enough snap in the air to make wraps a comfort. Track conditions from the horseman's point of view could not have been improved on.

The attendance was immense, the best of the make wraps a comfort. Track conditions from the horseman's point of view could not have been improved on.

The attendance was immense, the best of the present meeting, while the speculation exceeded in volume that of any previous day. The racing was excellent and the finishes spectacular and close. Favorites fared well, mostly accounting for the purses. Leamence took the handicap after a sharp stretch duel with Polls. The preceding race was another thriller and Koerner's action in casing Free Lance near the finish almost enabled Wheelwright to win. The closing dash brought a sharp struggle between Presumption and Helmet, with the younger horse triumphing by a narrow margin.

Owner Hallenbeck also had the pleasure of seeing his filly Housemaid score in handy fashion when she led home a fair band of sprinters in the second race. Trainer Karrick began the day auspiciously by sading Puck, winner of the opening race, owned by F. R. Hitchcock. Henry Huichison furnished the chief upset of the afternoon by winning the sixth race from Tom Bigbee, with Arcite, the favorite, in third place.

The delegation from Louisville today was a representative one and included Charles F. Grainger, Col. W. B. Haldeman, the well-known publisher, J. P. Hanlon, Christy Churchill and C. E. Wright. The entire party returned to the Falls City tonight. H. K. Knapp, F. R. Hitchcock and W. Rauch made the trip from New York to witness the match race.

H. K. Khapp, F. R. Hitchcock and W. Rauch made the trip from New York to witness the match race.

Catesby Woodford, owner of Sonada, today expressed a desire to tackle Worth and would not be adverse to pitting his colt against the champion if given a concession in weight.

Trainer Taylor announced that he would not ship Worth to Laurel to engage in a stake there on Saturday next, deeming his effort today a bit too strenuous to be followed by a shipping trip and an engagement at the end of his journey.

Worth and Sprite came out of their contest in good condition according to their respective trainers. The betting indulged in by individuals was lively and was at evens. Some of the biggest losers on the race, aside from owner Knapp, were E. R. Bradley, James Pickens, Alex Labold and Wayne O. Joplin. They were staunch Sprite supporters.

Mayor Shank of Indianapolis, made the trip to view the Worth-Sprite contest.

Lyman Davis, secretary of the New Louisville Joekey Club, was among today's visitors. Mr. Davis looks to be in a bad way, but he hopes to regain his health and will place himself in the hands of a specialist.

L. Le Blond purchased Doncaster from O. A. Blanchi this morning.

E. R. Bradley today bet Col. Alex Labold $300 to $100 that his Yankee Gun—Black Tail colt would take the measure of Colonel Labold's Voter—Chulita filly next season.

JUAREZ PROGRAM BOOK ISSUED.

The program book for the first week of the winter meeting at Juarez, Mex., November 30 to December 6, has made its appearance. It provides for six races daily on each day of the week except Monday, which will be an off day as in previous seasons at Juarez. In accordance with the Mexican custom, there will be racing each Sunday. The minimum purse is $300 and there is a liberal sprinkling of $400 and $500 purses, in addition to the stakes. The stake feature for the opening day, November 20, is the Dos Republicas Handicap, $1,000 guaranteed value, for all ages, distance three-quarters of tamile.

SIX HILDRETH RACERS FOR ENGLAND

Leading American Owner Perfects His Arrangements for Invasion of Foreign Turf.

Laurel, Md., October 24.—Large fields went to the post in most of the races here this afternoon. Pleasant racing weather brought out a large crowd and keen sport resulted. Favorites were bowled over with painful regularity, however, and followers of form had an unprofitable experience. The third and fifth races furnished stirring finishes, with noses separating the first two. The Pimlico delegation helped swell the attendance to one of the largest crowds of the meeting.

While the track had partially dried out, the going was far from being good, the footing being ampy and slow. Thirty-two layers were in line and speculation was brisk.

C. C. Smithson, who took an Important part in the selling races run at Pimlico, was again conspictions this afternoon. After Ben Loyal won, he boosted nim $300 over his entered price of $1,200, but R. E. Watkins protected the horse.

Outlan, winner of the sixth race, ran in the name and colors of J. F. Sweeney, who purchased the colt this morning from Woodford Clay.

A. B. Dade, who did the starting at Pimlico, handled the barrier here this afternoon. He will remain for the rest of the meeting and at its conclusion he will go to Norfolk.

Sam Ball, carded as a starter in the steeplechase, failed to put in an appearance, The horse was shipped from Pimlico this morning, but was lost en route. Up to the closing of the races he could not be located. Sam Ball and several of the horses running in the name of "Mr. Chetland" are now being handled by M. Daly.

S. C. Hildreth was at Pimlico this morning, conferring with Dave Leary about the shipment of the horses that he will send to England. Shanion and several others of the string were cantered. Hildreth has about decided to ship only six horses abroad and they probably will include the following: Novelty, Zeus, Shannon, Restigouche, Hampton Court, and Puggins. It is thought that the latter will like the grass tracks on the other side of the Atlantic. It is s

THIRTY LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS.

As a result of the racing of the last two weeks, T. Koerner has slightly improved his position at the head of the list of successful American jockeys for the year, and it now seems probable that the premier honors of 1911 will be his. McCabey, who has been pressing Koerner closely, is now ten winning mounts behind the leader. C. Peak and G. Buros have displaced A. Walsh and Kederis for positions among the leading thirty and the record of the thirty leaders from January I to and including the racing of Saturday last now stands as follows:

cation of the Jamestown Jockey Club's charter were reached in yesterday's call of the docket in the Norfolk City Circuit Court, counsel for the state rade no appearance. Judge McLemore said the case might be set later in the term, but the court could not proceed without consent of both sides. This means that the meeting of the Jamestown Jockey Club announced for next month will not be interfered with by the court proceedings.

WET DAY AT COEUR D'ALENE.

Spekane, Wash., October 24.—Cold and rainy weather did not prevent a good sized crowd from attending the Coeur d'Alene races this afternoon. Several long shots connected with the winning end of the purses. Lena Lech, running right back to her last race, defeated Rosevale rather easily at one mile. Starter Dwyer suspended A. Martin for the rest of the meeting for insubordination at the post.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Ogden Bishop has a string of horses racing in France.

James R. Keene is reported greatly improved in health. With his son Foxhall, he has left London for continental Europe.

H. D. Brown will go to Havana to get the Al-mendares track into racing condition immediately after the Laurel meeting ends next Tuesday.

The Laurel meeting ends next Tuesday.

The Australian Jockey Club's Derby, recently run at Randwick, was won by J. Watts' Cisco, a brown colt by San Francisco—Lady Wallace. The horse's time for the mile and a half was 2:37‡ and the winner's odds was 12 to 1. Cisco is yet another instance of St. Simon on Musket blending well, as it ever has since the days of La Fleche and Memotr. Poserdon's brother Jacamar was an even money favorite in the race.

LIBERAL RESPONSE IN JAMESTOWN STAKES.

Norfolk, Va., October 24.—Horsemen have responded liberally to the Jamestown Jockey Club's bid for entries for the Monticello Hotel, Lynnhaven and Exchauge Handicaps and the Thanksgiving and Merchants' Selling Stakes. These stakes closed last week and they will be run during the twenty-five days meeting which begins here November 2. The Monticello Hotel Handicap, a race of one mile for sill ages, will be the best of the meeting. It will pay the winner in the neighborhood of $1,500. The Lynnhaven and Exchange are for two and three-year-olds and are respectively worth $1,000 each.

The Thanksgiving Stakes is a race of one mile and an eighth, for three-year-olds and over, and the Merchants' a dash of six and a half furlongs for sill ages. In each instance the value will be $1,000.

Among the nominators for these races are August Belmont, chairman of the Jockey Club of New York; Richard T. Wilson, president of the Saratoga Association; James R. Keene, vice-chairman of the Jockey Club; E. F. Cooney, Harry Payne Whitney, James Rowe, Capt. P. M. Walker, U. S. A., Capt. E. B. Cassant, U. S. A., Richard E. Watkins, Frank Nolan, of Albany, P. S. P. Randolph, Joseph E. Widener, William Garth, W. L. Maupin, Dr. Ashe, Thomas F. Ryan, Capt. William F. Presgrave, Charles S. Campbell of Montreal, J. W. Flynn, Charles Rohler, Matthew M. Allen, Samuel C. Hildreth, William A. Burttschell, Samuel Louis, George W. Scott, John J. Hyland and H. G. Bedwell, Some of the nominations for the Monticello Handicap are Naushon, Beaucoup, Prince Ahmed, Sticker, Spohu, Harrious, Sweepaway, Labere, Cliff Edge, Priscillian, Zeus, Novelty, Hampton Court, Superstition and Sir John Johnson. The Exchange Handicap has attracted Priscillian, Watervale, Heatherbroom, Hoffman, Plate Glass, Lawton Wiggins, Hilarious, Sweepaway, Labere, Cliff Edge, Priscillian, Zeus, Novelty, Hampton Court, Superstition and Sir John Johnson. AMATEUR MEETINGS ON LONG ISLAND.

New York, October 24.—The annual meeting of the United Hunts Racing Association to be held at Belmont Park Terminal next Saturday and November 4. promises cross-country sport of the best type. The program will consist of steeplechases, hurdle flat and army races each day and a private sweepstakes on the opening day between Raymond Belmont's Culvert, Harry W. Smith's Nattle Bumppo and Robert Kelly's Kinderhook, at five furlongs, on the flat. The majority of the events are confined to gentlemen riders. The riders in the private sweepstakes will include John E. Tucker on Nattle Bumppo, E. C. Cowdin, Jr., on Culvert and Thomas Wright on Kinderhook, these being the best of the amateur riders.

One of the chief events of the sport each day will be a race for army officers, a steeplechase of about two and a half miles on the opening day, and a flat race, the San Juan Flate, of about two miles, on the second day. For the latter event the Hon. Perry Belmont will present plate to the riders of the three placed horses. The success of these army races at the various amateur meetings throughout the east has been such as to greatly encourage the War Department, the class of mounts, as well as the horsemanship displayed by the officers having recently shown marked improvement.

horsemanship displayed by the officers having recently shown marked improvement.

Gen. Leonard Wood, Gen. Frederick D. Grant and Maj. Henry T. Allen will act as stewards in the army events. The other officials for the meeting are: Stewards, August Belmont, Charles K. Harrison, Antelo Devereux and Fletcher Harper, representing the Hunts committee. Judges, Algernon Dalngerfield and John E. Cowdin, A. Butler Duncan and H. A. Buck. Starter, J. H. Bradford, Patrol judges, Franklin B. Yoss and Edward S. Voss, Paddock Judge, E. C. Smith. Clerk of the scales, George W. Gall.

Pranklin B. Woss and Edward S. Voss, George W. Gall.

The Meadow Brook Steeplechase Association will race at Belmont Park Terminal on election day, November 7. The program will consist of five races —the Syosset Hurdle Plate, about one mile and a half, over hurdles; the Lynbrook Plate, about six furlongs on the flat; the Tonkaway Steeplechase, ebout two and a half miles; the Retribution Steeplechase, about two and a half miles; the Retribution Steeplechase, about two and a quarter miles on the flat. Amateur racing, in the absence of professional sport, can be made popular in view of the large number of persons in this vicinity who have not lost interest in the thoroughbred horse.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

J. Mc., Cincinnati, O. Only the show bet on Kaiser.

George H., Louisville, Ky. 13 to 10 Myles O'Connell was correct.

G. F., Lexington, Ky. To date in 1911 Lawton Wiggins has won fourteen races and Plate Glass has won thirteen.

W. E. H. and J. S., Chicago, Running time included, the race finished at 4:34:54, from which you should be able to draw your own conclusions. Bob B., St. Louis, Mo. If only one cash bet was made and the others were all "if coming" bets de-pendent on that first bet, it appears that all action ceased when Steeplejack lost.

R. B., Chicago. If Princess Callaway had won you would have been entitled to payment. A mere error in spelling, where the intention was plain, would not invalidate the bet.

Frank S., Buffalo, N. Y. Have no data at hand to furnish you with the information desired. Both men left horses at Coeur d'Alene but no statement of the number or their identity is available.

H. M., Toronto, Ont. Where the parties to the wager know what the track prices actually were there should be no difficulty about a settlement, Send the date of the race and the matter will be looked up.

M. F., Buffalo, N. Y. Your stipulation appearin to have been that a bet was to go on Elizabeth Har wood only in case Moncreif won apparently mad the bet a draw. Moncreif having been scratched an there being no winnings to apply on Elizabeth Har wood

$2 mutuels paid, Housemaid, $3.00 straight, $3.00 place, $2.40 show; Jeanne d'Arc, $30.80 place, $5.30 show; Magazine, $3.00 show.

Equivalent booking odds—Housemaid, 50 to 100 straight, 50 to 100 place, 20 to 100 show; Jeanne d'Arc, 1440 to 100 place, 165 to 100 show; Magazine, 50 to 100 show.

Winner—B f, by Broomstick—Ethel Pace (trained by F. M. Taylor).

Went to post at 2:39. At post 1 minute. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. HOUSE-MAID had an advantage at the start and, setting a fast pace, never left the result in doubt, winning as her rider pleased. JEANNE D'ARC was in closest pursuit all the way and easily held the others safe for second place. MAGAZINE ran fairly well and had no mishaps. ETHELDA ran poorly and can do much better.

Equivalent booking odds—Free Lance, 135 to 100 straight, 40 to 100 place, 15 to 100 show; Wheelwright, 65 to 100 place, 25 to 100 show; Sir Blaise, 30 to 100 show.

Winner—Ch. c, by Alvescot—Merry Heart (trained by P. Coyne).

Went to post at 3:03. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. FREE L-NCE took the lead at once and, after racing SIR BLAISE to defeat, appeared an easy winner, but tired mery petcelly in the last seventy yards and just lasted long enough to win. WHEELWRIGHT came with a rush through the stretch and would have won in a few strides more. SIR BLAISE was well up for the entire race, but tired in the stretch. URSULA EMMA ran poorly and was always outpaced by the others.

Went to post at 3:31. At post 1 minute, Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. LEAMENCE was well ridden and under restraint to the stretch, where he came fast under hard urging and finally outstayed POLLS. The latter was saved to the stretch, then came on with a rush and finished gamely, but failed to quite get up. MARY DAVIS showed the most carly speed and made the pace fast, but was forced to her utmost by HAZEL BURKE, causing her to tire in the stretch. HAZEL BURKE ran a fast seven furlongs and tired in the final drive.

Overweights—Polls, 1½ pounds.

Winner—B, g, by Golden Maxim—Proud Duchess (trained by O. A. Blanchi).

Went to post at 4:49. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. PRE-SUMPTION, after saving much ground for the entire race and standing the final drive gamely, was tiring at the end and just lasted long enough to win. Helmet, probably best, ran a good race, but was cut off in the first quarter and lost ground by going wide, then tired a trifle in the final strides of a gaine effort. Workking LAD finished fast and wore THEO COOK down in the last few strides. THEO COOK showed high speed and set the pace fast to the stretch, but thed after going a good half mile. CAPTAIN CAR-MODY was always outpaced.

Winner—Ch. f, by The Commoner—Touch Not (trained by W. R. Sallee).

Went to post at 3:24. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.

COMMONER'S TOUCH ran in close pursuit of the leaders from the start and, finishing with a rush, outgamed STAR JASMINE in the final drive. The latter set the pace and was hard ridden throughout, but swerved to the inside into heavy going in the stretch drive. DUVAL began slowly and was closing up on the leaders at the finish. LITTLE EP showed much speed, but tired in the stretch.
